

WGCU PROGRAM GUIDE for JUNE 2018

Inside WGCU

noteworthy

by Rick Johnson

Welcome to Expressions 2.0

As you know, June marked the last print edition of Expressions, but it is certainly not the end of our dialogue with you - our viewers, listeners and supporters. On this mailer, you'll find the TV programming grids for the month - the same ones you are accustomed to seeing in Expressions magazine.

Of course, this can be accessed electronically anytime by going to wgcu.org/expressions. But you need not access the internet to stay in touch with WGCU.

If you need to contact someone about this mailer, call Jessica Trueblood at 239-590-2300 or email her at jtrueblood@wgcu.org. Her address is 10501 FGCU Blvd. S., Fort Myers, FL 33965-6565.

In the meantime, thanks for reading, watching, listening and, most of all, for your continued support of WGCU Public Media. ■

Podcast celebrates songs in key of life

WGCU has launched another new podcast, called Three Song Stories: Biography Through Music, hosted by Mike Kiniry. Three Song Stories is an exploration of the power music has to connect us to times, places, people, and emotions from our lives. The show brings out the guests' personalities, and personal histories, by mining the connections music has made during their lifetimes. It's also a chance to sit back and listen to the eclectic mix of songs the guests have chosen for their ultimate musical memory short list.

Go to threesongstories.org to listen.

SIZZLE SWFL

RESTAURANT WEEK

Who says there's no free lunch?

Please support WGCU during our June campaign – at any dollar amount – to help us end our fiscal year in financial health. We'll throw in some incentive: You could win a restaurant gift card and in the process help a student in the FGCU Hospitality program.

New donors, new sustainers and current sustainers who increase their monthly giving amounts June 4 to 8 will have their names entered into a daily drawing to receive a restaurant gift card as a part of Sizzle Southwest Florida, which runs from May 31 through June 13.

Participating restaurants in Sizzle Southwest Florida Restaurant Week each offer a special three-course lunch and dinner menu, with a twist on the price. Sizzle Southwest Florida has donated these gift cards in support of WGCU Public Media and for FGCU's Food & Beverage Scholarship Fund.

For more information and to donate, go to give2wgc.org.
